

Saying Sorry

I have some good friends.

Sometimes me and my friends argue or even fight.

This makes me feel angry
with my friend.

If I stay angry then me
and my friend will both feel sad.

I need to try to calm
down and not be angry
anymore so that then I can make up with my friend.

I might have made my friend sad, so I should say “sorry”.

I am sorry

If I say “sorry” it will make my friend feel
happier.

Then this will make me
feel happier.

My friend might say
sorry too and then we can shake hands.

I will be happy that we
are friends again.
